

THERAPY WITHIN REACH means affordable and empathetic care for people and families in need. If you cannot afford current market rates for therapy or if you lack adequate health insurance coverage, Open Path is here for you.

Our sliding scale rates—$30-60 per session—allow clients access to top-quality therapy in their community.

HOW IT WORKS

Search.

Our easy-to-use website makes it simple to search our expansive network of Open Path therapists in your area. Quickly find the right therapist in the right location.

Join.

Once you've found a therapist, register and pay a one-time fee of $49 to become an Open Path Member. Your lifetime membership will allow you to work with an Open Path therapist for $30-$60/session as long as there is a financial need.

Engage.

Schedule appointments directly with your therapist once you have been connected online.

That's all there is to it.
